

Department of Clinical Psychology

National Institute of Mental Health & Neurosciences (NIMHANS) , Bengaluru

Let's Talk ADHD

A Virtual Symposium

A symposium to encourage discussion about developmentally appropriate ways of communication about ADHD, with children and parents. The symposium will provide an overview of current research in the field, and an opportunity to interact with experts in the field.

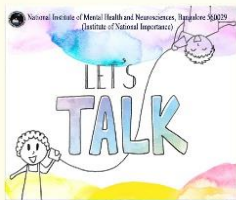

21st April 2021 (Wednesday, 9:30 am to 1 pm)

23rd April 2021 (Friday, 1:30 pm to 4:30 pm)

Who is this for : Professionals working with children with ADHD and their families
(Clinical psychologists, Counsellors, School counsellors, Psychiatrists, Developmental Pediatricians, Social workers)

Registration fee: Rs. 1000/-

(Entails access on both days of symposium, Certificate of participation and Developmentally appropriate information booklets on ADHD for children and parents.)

If interested, please follow the link to receive the registration form:

<https://forms.gle/RPuataB6mhSqiVfs7>

Resource persons:

- Dr. Uma Hirisave, Professor, Department of Clinical Psychology, NIMHANS
- Dr. Preeti Jacob, Associate Professor, Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, NIMHANS
- Dr. Bino Thomas, Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatric Social Work, NIMHANS
- Ms. Benika Narang, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Neev MH, New Delhi
- Prof. Nicole Rinehart, Director, Deakin Child Study Centre, Deakin University, Australia
- Dr. Susan Ozer, Consultant Neurodevelopmental Paediatrician, East and North Hertfordshire, NHS Trust
- Dr. Chinniah Yemula, Consultant Community Paediatrician, Bedford, Cambridgeshire Community Services, NHS Trust

Coordinator: M. Nithya Poornima, PhD, Associate Professor

Chairperson: Dr. Seema Mehrotra, Professor and Head
Department of Clinical Psychology, NIMHANS, Bengaluru

Contact : collective.nimhans@gmail.com

